Seattle, WA, May 3, 2005

Vegas Buzz Radio and The Hare Brained Ideas Group have teamed up to create The NetMillionaire Buzz Radio Show. This marks May 3rd as the second engagement for the Seattle based, Hare Brained Ideas Group's Explosive New Radio Show. In conjunction with their new MLM Training Game, "The NetMillionaire Training System" designed for the Network Marketing Industry, the show is a phenomenal new tool that MLM business owners and entrepreneurs can use to get the inside scoop on training skills, success practices and much, much more. In turn, they can share this information with their Network Marketing associates and accelerate their businesses to the next level.

This first ever radio program for creating a buzz in the Network Marketing Industry, is hosted by this team of trainers, speakers and business managers. The NetMillionaire Buzz Radio Show airs with an exclusive interview with Dr Joe Rubino. Rubino is author of 8 training books for the Network Marketing Industry. His latest, "The 7-Step System to Building a \$1,000,000 Network Marketing Dynasty: How to Achieve Financial Independence through Network Marketing" is a sure best selling, straight-forward practical guide which presents a proven seven step system for Network Marketing success. It offers field-tested effective advice on what it takes to reach the top levels of achievement. This highly acclaimed book outlines the seven core steps for Network Marketing success:

- Develop your vision
- Create a detailed action plan for realizing that vision
- Master effective prospecting
- Become an enrollment machine
- Train others to excel
- Become more effective through specific personal development structures
- Learn to be a truly inspiring leader

Dr Rubino's company, "The Center for Personal Reinvention" believes the world we live and work in is marked by unprecedented change and complexity. For many of us, life begins to look like an uphill struggle to survive instead of a fun and exciting opportunity to grow, risk, and play full out in partnership with others. The stresses, conflicts and frustrations we experience daily need not be so.

In place of these, there exists another possibility.

...To live and work in choice, empowered by the challenges of life.

...To champion others to achieve their greatness in an environment that supports the personal excellence and growth of all involved.

...To acquire the success distinctions that support mutuality, creativity and harmony

...To take on the art of listening and communicating in such a way that others are impacted to see new possibilities for accomplishment, partnership and excellence

Reinventing ourselves, our relationships with others and our perception of the world is the result of a never ending commitment to our personal magnificence and to the magnificence of others. It is made possible through the acquisition of approximately fifty key distinctions that cause people to begin to view life and people in an entirely different way. When people really "get" these distinctions, life, relationships, and new possibilities for breakthroughs show up in a totally different way. Through the use of cutting edge technology as a dynamic foundation for learning, growing and acting, The Center For Personal Reinvention is successful in shifting how life shows up for people by supporting them to self-discover these life-changing distinctions.

Our personal power is greatly enhanced by the ability to look 'outside the box' and explore that rich area of new possibilities we call "what we don't know that we don't know." By its very nature, we typically have little access to the productivity-enhancing and life-changing breakthroughs that result from taking off the blinders and exploring this rich domain.

His coaching program gives the client a person who is able to listen to where they are stopped or not totally realizing their full potential in life or in business and ask questions that support them in seeing something important that they had not realized before. A coach sources breakthroughs.

True coaches do not give advice or lend their opinions. They are value based, not ego based. They do not manipulate or exploit to carry out their own agenda. They are not the same as counselors or therapists. They do not try to protect, control or rescue those they are coaching. They instead listen for where one may be experiencing challenges or may be missing some key element that, if put into place, would impact a desired result. Coaches support us in seeing something that we may not be aware of by listening both to what we say and to what we leave out. They have empathy for the person being coached but are not emotionally attached to an outcome. They serve to champion people to have their lives work optimally. They do this by asking questions, exploring possibilities, making requests and, at times, confronting issues that may need to be examined. Skilled coaching is a fine art and a highly valuable service.

"The Center for Personal Reinvention" offers confidential and impactful personal and business coaching to individuals and organizations. Whether the goal is to maximize their personal effectiveness, skyrocket their business growth, enhance the quality of their relationships, resolve conflicts or simply to request support in brainstorming "outside the box," we are here to serve their needs and champion their excellence. Most often, 30 to 60 minute coaching sessions are conducted via telephone for 1 or 2 individuals or via teleconference bridge for groups ranging in size from 3 to 300. In-person coaching, group workshops and custom designed courses are also available by request.
