Max Steingart is the expert that people turn to when they want to learn how to meet the right people with the help of a computer. He's been doing this since 1975 when he introduced an innovative computer system to the yacht brokerage industry.

Money Magazine called him The Match-Maker in 1983 because his computer-generated lists made it easy for buyers and sellers of boats to connect with each other. Now he has taken his skills far beyond that to help Network Marketers find the best people for their business on the Internet. One of his students added 1000 people to her business in 4 months.

With his latest book "Make The Internet Your Warm Market" Max will show you how to tap into an unlimited source of people and eliminate the traditional rejection that comes from talking to strangers.

Max has shared the stage with nationally known celebrities, best-selling authors, and professional athletes. He has spoken on Internet relationship building, leadership, target marketing, goal setting and attainment and personal motivation to large groups.

Max has written 425 articles, five books and has produced six audio programs on Internet relationship building, target marketing and personal motivation. His articles have been posted on over 65 web sites and in 11 publications. He's a contributing writer to many industry publications, a popular faculty member on most of the online Internet training platforms, and has been a guest speaker on numerous radio shows.

Max's daily motivation series has subscribers on every continent. His positive emails reach and inspire millions of people making them one of the world's most widely distributed inspirational messages on the Internet.

Since 1996, Max has devoted his time to researching, studying, understanding and teaching people the secrets of online relationship building through the use of Instant Messaging.

Max grew up on Miami Beach. His love of boating and sailing guided him to a successful yacht brokerage career after graduating from the University of Arizona. In 1975, he started a company that introduced computers and database management to the yacht brokerage industry.

In 1978, Max founded a database publishing company and quickly grew it to a multi-million-dollar-a-year business that became an INC 500 Company. Max's innovative applications created intense media excitement during the 'Information Age' days of the 80s. South Florida Magazine referred to him as The Mogul of Consumer Databases.

Other articles followed in many other business magazines and newspapers including: Inc. Magazine, Profit Magazine, Entrepreneur Magazine, Venture Magazine, The Robb Report, The Wall Street Journal, The Miami Herald, The Ft Lauderdale News, The Broward Review to name a few.
